SWNA Meets Mon. Mar. 24

By Peter Atlee

All community residents are invited to attend the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly's (SWNA) annual meeting on Monday, March 24, 2008 at 7:30PM in the sanctuary of St. Augustine's Church (600 M St. SW). SWNA's task forces and committees will report on their activities over the past year and discuss what may be in store in the year ahead. We will also hear an update on the Call Box Project being undertaken in the Southwest neighborhood and some potential festivities during the Cherry Blossom Festival. Amy Tarce of the National Capital Planning Commission will be joining us to discuss the future of Lansburgh Park. We have also invited a representative from the Men's Titanic Society to tell us about the organization's annual ceremony at the Titanic Memorial—located right in our own neighborhood.

Opening Day Fun at 3 pm before the 8 pm Game

Giant balloon arches across Half St. SE from M to N and along N St. SE will greet early arrivals at Nationals Park Sun. Mar. 30, with stilt walkers, musicians and face painters roaming the area. But there will be no food or beverage sales outside the ballpark.

Hoping to get fans through Secret Service checkpoints and to their seats long before the president pitches the first ball and the game starts at 8:05, the Nationals have arranged to keep fans "safe and entertained while waiting in line".

New Technology Task Force Seeks Volunteers

By Perry Klein

A new Task Force is seeking ways to use technology to improve the quality of life of residents of Southwest (and near-Southeast) DC. It is part of the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly.

Would you be interested in helping? For example, right now we need volunteers to research what off-the-shelf hardware is available to set up a mini-Wi-Fi internet access system in SW. We need help in scanning and photographing past issues of The Southwester for posting on the www.swdc.org web site and making into a CD. The past issues represent 30 years or more of a month-by-month account of the history of Southwest DC.

Your Water Bill Tackles Lead in Drinking Water

By Dale MacIver

Lead in toys. Lead in peeling paint. Lead in old water lines. Lead in auto exhaust.

Our children 6 years old and younger are in danger of permanent damage from lead poisoning in their surroundings.

Officials of the DC Water and Sewer

Authority (WASA) were at the SW Branch Library recently to explain how they are spending $30 million a year to get rid of old lead pipes bringing drinking water from the water main in the street into our homes.

Since 2004 WASA has had a hurry-up program to tear up these lead lines and put in safe pipes. WASA has spent $93 million to tear out 14,100 of the 35,000 known lead service lines, but has 21,000 yet to go at a cost of $315,000 by its goal of the year 2016.

Here are two city maps showing in blue where lead pipes have been torn out so far, and in red the lead pipes that still need to be torn out. Maps for other parts of DC show the same things.

WASA's Board has to decide after a Thurs. May 1 public hearing at 6:30 pm at 777 No. Capitol St. NE whether to continue this very expensive program at its present rate or stretch it out a number of years, because of the heavy demand to use funds for all its other important programs – like reducing sewage overflow into the Anacostia and Potomac Rivers during rain storms, making costly improvements to the Blue Plains sewage treatment plant and still keeping your residential and commercial water bill from going through the roof.

WASA will soon be announcing a rates hearing by its whole Board for June 11.

For pamphlets and more information the WASA website is www.dcwasa.com. The public affairs office is 202-787-2202.

Drop Off Hazardous Waste, Electronics Sat., Apr. 26

The DC Department of Public Works (DPW) will hold its annual spring Household Hazardous Waste and E-Cycling collection event Saturday, April 26, 2008, from 9 am to 3 pm at the Carter Barron Amphitheatre parking lot at 16th and Kennedy Streets, NW. This drop-off service is free and open to all District residents.

DC residents can bring items including leftover cleaning and gardening chemicals, small quantities of gasoline, pesticides and poisons, mercury thermometers, paint, solvents, spent batteries of all kinds, anti-freeze, chemistry sets, automotive fluids, and even asbestos floor tiles to the collection site for environmentally safe disposal.

Additionally, an electronics recycler will be onsite to take end-of-life consumer electronics including computers, computer monitors and other accessories, televisions, and office equipment. These machines will be broken down into their component parts (plastic, glass, toxic/heavy metals) and recycled or disposed of safely.

To help protect against identity theft, computers and hard drives brought to the event will be wiped clean three times using US Department of Defense (DoD) high-level security wiping procedures.

Items that will NOT be accepted include ammunition, bulk trash, wooden TV consoles, propane tanks, microwave ovens, air conditioners and other appliances, as well as radioactive or medical wastes.

Learn more information about household hazardous waste and e-cycling or call 311 from inside the District.

Game Day Parking In Southwest

A). Water St. SW will continue to be metered but with "variable rate" meters.

B). Both sides of Maine Ave and M St. SW on into Southeast. "No parking during stadium events." Other times will have "Variable rate" meters.

C). All other SW streets north of Buzzards Point will have free parking seven days a week 7 am to midnight on both sides of the street all the time for Southwest residents who have bought residential parking permits (RPP Dist. 6) ($15 a year) and have them in their windshields. Anyone without an "RPP Dist 6" in the windshield can park for two hours on one side where signs permit two hours of non-meter parking. Visitors to a residence must have a visitor pass in the window of their vehicles. There are several different types of visitor passes. Some streets will have parking meters.

Streets that were eligible for RPP treatment but where residents haven't petitioned for RPP, will be "ushered" into the RPP system. Residents will receive notices to "make a trip to DMV" to [pay their $15 a year fee] and "obtain new vehicle registrations showing the Zone 6 parking permit (RPP6)."

Ballpark Jobs From SW Fair

Many jobs at the Nationals Ballpark have been filled as a result of two days of job fairs at the King Greenleaf Recreation Center in SW in Feb.

Naomi Mitchell, staff member of 6th Ward Councilmember Tommy Wells, reports on his blog www.tommywells.org that 500 "prescreened" SW-Near SE residents applied and many were hired "on the spot" and many hired later after follow-up interviews.

"It was also a plus to the Nationals to employ nearby residents that will be able to walk to the stadium," said Ms. Mitchell.

Ms. Mitchell gives credit to several local and DC organizations and individuals for the success of the week-long prescreening and two-day job fair.

Moffatt Opposes SW Parking Lots

ANC6D Chair Roger Moffatt told the DC Zoning Commission it must stick by its earlier decisions to prevent ballpark traffic through SW residential streets.

An application by the Nationals and the DC Office of Planning for surface lots for an additional 2,950 cars south of 4th St. SW & other SW residential streets was unanimously opposed by the SW-SE Advisory Neighborhood Commission 6D.

The ANC cites the DC Comprehensive Plan that "ensures" these residential areas will be "buffered from adverse impacts associated with increased density and traffic relating to stadium area development."

The zoning commission will meet Mon. Mar 24 to consider the request for parking lots.

14th St. Bridge Is For MD/VA, Not DC

Only 13 % of the rush-hour on the 14th St. Bridge is DC vehicles, federal highway officials report. Video cameras surveyed 90,000 license plates on the bridge last Nov. and found only 12,000 were DC plates.

Used Computers Needed For SW/SE Families

By Perry Klein

SWNA needs computers for families in the Near SW/SE community. Do you have a computer (less than 6 years old) you are not using and are willing to donate to SWNA for a worthy cause?

SWNA will arrange for First Time Computers to refurbish your computer so that it (or an equivalent one) can be furnished to local families needing them. Classes for children are being given at King-Greenleaf Recreation Center.

Contact Perry Klein at 488-7430 to arrange a pickup, or email him at pk@ieeee.org with a description of what kind of computer you have for donation. We are especially looking for computers less than six years old so that we can install Windows 2000 or XP and Microsoft Office on them. We also need the monitor, keyboard and mouse.

These donations to SWNA (a 501c3 charitable and educational corporation) are tax-deductible.

Computers-for-Kids Classes

By Thelma Jones

With 21 new students, ranging in ages 5-12, classes are taught on Monday and Tuesday evenings by volunteer instructors Gerald Brown, Craig Ferguson and LaShawn Williams. The students are taught basic computer skills, including typing, Word, Excel, PowerPoint and internet searches. They are also taught to identify the parts of the computer and their functions as well. A review of the computer parts and functions are normally repeated at the beginning of each class.

Recognizing that communications skills, discipline, and respect for others are integral to success, Instructors Brown, Ferguson and Williams regularly uses "teachable moments" to reinforce and complement the students' training received at home and in school.
